1.

VICTORY VIOLET

(New Giant)

Imagine a Violet that measures 1½ to 2½ inches.

Imagine a Violet that has a stem 9 to 12 inches long.

Imagine a Violet plant two feet across.

Imagine a Violet plant 12 to 18 inches high.

Think of a blossom of richest Violet brilliance with petals of velvety softness. Add to that a pleasing sweet fragrance and you have a little glimpse of the Victory Violet. Its blooms last three to five days longer than most cut violets. It is sturdy, will grow in sun or shade. Tested in many climates. Sure to grow. Sure to please. Sure to bloom.

$1.50 each

$8.50 for six

$16.00 per doz.

2.

LADY LLOYD GEORGE

(Semi double)

The loveliest of all Violets. It is a beautiful lavender has five large flaring petals with a dainty double violet tucked in the center, giving it distinction. It is the most exquisite and rare of all perfumed violets. When full grown the blossoms open up to two inches across. Stems will average 9 inches in length. Leaves about 5 inches across.

$1.50 each

$8.50 for six

$16.00 per doz.

3.

NEOPOLITAN

(Double Parma)

A cluster of tiny petals forming almost a ball of lavender shaded to lighter center. Five to six inch stems hold this lovely blossom upright above the leaves, making it a delight to pick. Perfume is unexcelled. Especially long lasting for corsages.

50c each

$5.00 per doz.

4.

SWANLEY

(Double White)

A full fluffy ball of white. Very fragrant. Looks like a bed of pop corn in early spring. Stems about 6 inches. Dainty pointed leaves. Light green. Lovely in pots, porch boxes, border, shady nooks or rock gardens. Early and long blooming season. Exceptionally long lasting for corsages.

50 cents each

$5.00 per doz.

5

MARIE LOUISE

(Double)

Mauve with light center and a tiny orange dot in center. Very fragrant. Long lasting. Resembles the De Parme only darker in coloring. This has been a favorite in all countries for centuries. Blossoms are delicious confection when candied. Violet syrup, a special treat for cakes and over ice cream.

50 cents each

$5.00 per doz.

Note: You can have the three double violets mixed at $5 per doz.

6.

WHITE DOVE

(Large single white)

So white it glistens like satin. Its petals are large and round. Stems 5 to 6 inches hold the head proudly erect. Blooms twice a year. Likes the sun and plenty of water. Cut blooms last several weeks in water. Tradition has it that where ever a pure soul lives unspotted by the world, these pure white violets grow in profusion.

60 cents each

$3.50 for six

$6.00 per doz.

7.

MISS AMERICA

A favorite show violet! Very large soft lavender flowers with long stems. Very fragrant. Resembles and is related to Princess of Wales and California Rubber stem. Improved.

60 cents each

$3.00 for six

$5.00 per doz.

8.

ORIENTAL LADY

(Toni red)

Bright red with two petals upright. A little more gay than the American Beauty. You will want a nice patch of these as they are a joy. You're visitors will be delighted with the color and profusion of bloom. The first blossoms are low and tiny, a month later they surprise you with lovely big flowers. A flag can be made with the red, white and blue violets. Use the White Dove and Blue Skies. Many interesting and novel arrangements can be had with colored violets.

PACKING INFORMATION

Violets are packed to keep two weeks. They are carefully washed, wrapped in special moss and oil and parchment papers. Packers get $1.00 per hour now. There is also the digging, labels, tags, besides postage and sales tax. That is why we have to add a packing charge.

We always send the best we have, and wish to insure their safe arrival and your pleasure and satisfaction.

We ship to Alaska, Canada, the Hawaiian Islands and South America.

Air Parcel Post is fine for distant shipping, both for plants and cut flowers. We can pack lighter and cost is reasonable. Air rate in 6th and 7th zones U. S. A. runs about 80 cents per pound.

Weights: One dozen Double Violets packed weigh about one pound. Two or three Victory Violets about the same.

Inspection: All plants are opened for State Inspection so we cannot guarantee that plants will reach you in exactly the same condition and packing in which we shipped them.

Plants will be shipped within ten days, unless you specify date of shipment. No shipping in August.

When you wish Violet plants sent as a gift, we will be glad to enclose your card.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We have over one hundred varieties of violets in our gardens. New ones will appear in our catalogue from time to time.

WE ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR RESULTS IN ANY WAY

Do not worry if the first blossoms are small. Cut them off and the second one will be large. After they get established or the second year they will show you what they can do.

If you love your violets they will thrive. If you forget them they will try to live and bloom anyway.

We will be happy to send your friends catalogues, free of charge.

We wish you happy gardening and thank you for inviting our Violets into your home and heart.
